

Born in Romania 61 years ago. Graduated from Faculty of Medicine and specialized in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care in Cluj Napoca, Romania.

Immigrated to Israel in 1987. Currently working as a specialist in Pain Management and Anaesthesia.

Accomplishments: -In 1998 being one of the pioneers of invasive treatment "OPEN MRI" guided

-In 2003 introduced the use of ultrasound in regional anaesthesia and in invasive treatment of pain in my hospital

-last but not least being a good doctor

Currently I'm The Director of Acute Pain Service in Sheba hospital Tel Hashomer which is the largest hospital in the Middle East.